ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

Item 1. Introduction of members research activities, Moderator E. Gelbūdienė

The members of the center who attended the meeting introduced themselves.

Item 2. Proposals for joint research, Moderator E.Gelbūdienė

Edita Gelbūdienė and Aline Lemeur presented their ideas for collaboration.

Edita Gelbūdienė proposed a joint study on the legal regulation of domestic violence in different countries from the point of view of NGO staff. Law students and teachers, as well as staff from non-governmental organizations, should be involved in the study. The proposal proved interesting to the members of the center, but there were doubts about the possibility of involving lawyers.

Aline Lemeur presented her idea: project on "Innovation, collective intelligence and resiliency in health organizations". This publishing project aims to explore how collective intelligence, as well as the collaborative and participatory approach, can foster the structural resilience of healthcare organizations and how innovation can contribute to it.

CONCLUSION(S):

The members of the center decided to take part in the project: "Innovation, collective intelligence and resiliency in health organizations".

Item 3. Any Other Businesses

Based on the chosen project idea, Aline Lemeur was offered to become a deputy director.

CONCLUSION(S):

The appointment of Aline as Deputy Director of the Center was unanimously approved
